Numb. 8692.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 10, to Saturday November 14, 1747.

Westminster, November 12.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Honourable Mr. Bellenden, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AS one of my principal Views, in calling this Parliament, was, that I might receive the most clear and certain Information of the Sense of my People, on the present Posture of Affairs; I was desirous to meet you as early as your own Convenience, as well as that of the Publick, would admit.

By the Advice of my Parliament, I entered into the War against Spain, in order to vindicate and secure the Trade and Commerce of my Subjects. By their Advice also, and in Conformity to my Engagements, I undertook the Support of the Empress Queen of Hungary, and of the just Rights of the House of Austria. In Resentment for this Conduct, so necessary for the Interests of my own Kingdoms, and of the ancient Allies of my Crown, France not only declared War against me, but fomented and supported an unnatural Rebellion within this Kingdom. In carrying on this just and necessary War, I have found the most chearful and vigorous Support from my Parliament: And though the Success has not been answerable to our Wishes, and just Expectations, in the Low-Countries; yet it must be allowed, to the Honour of this Nation, that no Part of the Misfortunes can be imputed to us.

The signal Successes, which it has pleased God to grant us at Sea, have made the Enemy feel the Weight of our Naval Strength, to their great Loss, and the real and solid Advantage of this Nation. This has appeared most remarkably in the Operations of my Fleet, this last Year; which have tended no less to the Honour of the British Flag, than to the Reduction of the Maritime Force and Commerce of France. The Government of the United Provinces has, once more, resumed that Consistency, which will give great Strength to the Common Cause; cement more firmly the Friendship between this Kingdom and that Republick; and be a lasting Security to our inseparable Interests. One great Effect of this happy Alteration in Holland has already appeared, in the vigorous Declaration lately made by the States General to the Court of France; and the Orders given by them, for committing Hostilities every where against the French King and his Subjects.

Some Overtures for a general Pacification have lately been made to me, on the Part of France; and though some of the Terms proposed were such as could not be approved, yet as I have had no other Aim, but to bring about a safe and honourable Peace, I have shewn the utmost Inclination to facilitate it, in Conjunction with my Allies; and a Congress is actually agreed to be held at Aix la Chapelle, whither the several Ministers will soon repair. I hope all the Powers concerned will bring with them the same Dispositions to effectuate this great Work, on just and reasonable Conditions, which I sincerely have.

In this Situation, I am confident you will agree in Opinion with me, that it is necessary to be vigilant and attentive to every Event; and that there can be no Reason to expect a good Peace, but by being timely prepared to carry on a vigorous and effectual War. I therefore rely on your hearty and powerful Support, to enable me to prosecute the War, in case the Obstinacy of our Enemies, in not agreeing to just and reasonable Terms of Accommodation, should render it unavoidable. For this Purpose, I am now actually concerting the necessary Measures with my Allies; whose Interests I am determined to adhere to and support. Let us be in Readiness, in case the Negociations should fail of the desired Effect, to convince our Enemies, how much they are mistaken, if they vainly imagine that Great Britain, and her Allies, will submit to receive the Law from any Power whatsoever; and demonstrate to the World, that we will decline no Difficulty or Hazard for the Preservation of the Common Liberty, and our own Independency, and essential Interests.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Necessity of adequate Supplies appears from what has been already mentioned. The proper Estimates for the Services of the ensuing Year

Year ſhall be laid before you; and I deſire you to grant me ſuch Supplies, as your own Security and laſting Welfare, and the preſent critical and important Situation of Affairs, require. You may depend on their being applied only to the Purpoſes for which they ſhall be given; and if, by the falling out of Events, any Saving can be made, it ſhall be duly accounted for.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

If any farther Proviſions ſhall be found expedient, to render more effectual the good Laws lately made for the Security of the preſent Eſtabliſhment, extinguiſhing the Spirit of Rebellion, and for the better civilizing, improving, and reducing into Order, any Part of the United Kingdom, I depend on your known Affection to me and to your Country, ſeriouſly and early to ſet about ſo good a Work. I will only add, that there never was a Conjuncture, in which Unanimity, Firmneſs, and Diſpatch, were more neceſſary for the Safety, Honour, and true Intereſt of Great Britain.

Liege, Nov. 15, N. S. Marſhal Lowendahl ſet out for Paris on the 11th Inſtant, where he will ſtay till the End of this Month. The Day before his Departure he gave Orders to quarter the Soldiers at Diſcretion on the Magiſtrates of Namur, for having refuſed to pay 350,000 Livres, which M. Luce, Intendant of Hainault, had demanded of them.

Hague, November 17, N. S. The States of Holland have reſolved upon the Succeſſion to the Stadtholderſhip, with this Reſtriction however, that the Succeſſion ſhall only deſcend to the Heirs Male of the Prince of Orange's Female Iſſue, in Caſe his Highneſs ſhould die without any Male Iſſue. The Nobles of the Province of Guelderland have likewiſe reſolved to ſettle the Succeſſion, and to conform exactly in this Affair with the Province of Holland. They have alſo agreed to take off the Reſtrictions contained in the Prince of Orange's Commiſſion as Stadtholder of their Province, and to make out a new one conformable to that of King William: And laſtly, they have nominated his Highneſs to be firſt Noble of the Quarter of Nimmegen, in Conſequence of which he becomes Preſident of the Nobility of the whole Province. We hear from Naarden, that a few Days ago, the French Priſoners of War, who are kept there, having received Intelligence that the Garriſon was marched out of Town to make room for ſome other Troops, took that Opportunity to attempt their Eſcape, and accordingly had found Means to penetrate as far as the Utrecht Gate, having forced the Sally Ports, and diſarmed the Centinels, when the Burghers in great Numbers ran to the Aſſiſtance of the Guard, and with ſome Difficulty overpowered the French, and carried them back to their Caſemates, except ſix or ſeven, who found Means to eſcape during the Confuſion. General Colycar and Count Maurice of Naſſau were promoted Yeſterday to the Rank of Velt Marſhals, and Brigadier Sturler to that of Lieutenant General.

Hague, Nov. 21, N. S. A Reſolution was paſſed Yeſterday in the Aſſembly of Holland, and carried this Day to the States General for their Approbation, appointing Meſſ. Bentinck, Catwyck, and Haſſelaer, Miniſters Plenipotentiary for the intended Congreſs at Aix la Chapelle; as likewiſe Meſſ. Calkoen and Gronsfeldt, to be alſo Miniſters Plenipotentiary, the firſt at the Court of Dreſden, and the other at the Court of Berlin. We hear by this Day's Letters from Paris, that the two French Ships of War the Tonnant and the Intrepide, which made their Eſcape in the laſt Sea Fight, were returned to Breſt in a very ſhatter'd Condition. The Duke of Aremberg arrived here this Morning, and talks of continuing at the Hague till next Spring.

St. James's, November 11.

This Day M. Ringwich, Miniſter from the King of Sweden, had an Audience of Leave of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, November 13.

This Morning his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here from Holland.

Whitehall, November 14.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Robert Eden, Batchelor of Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worceſter, void by the Death of Dr. Samuel Green.

Dublin, October 31.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired at his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Concourſe of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes, who appeared in great Splendor to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode ſet to Muſick was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; after which there was a Ball in the new Ball-Room at the Caſtle. The Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy throughout the City. The ſeveral Entertainments were extremely regular and magnificent, and the Decorations of the Ball and Supper-Rooms in a new and elegant Taſte.

Office of Ordnance, October 27, 1747.

The Principal Officers of his Majeſty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that they intend to ſell by publick Auction, at their Office in the Tower, on Wedneſday the 2d of December next, ſeveral Lots of Waggons, Parchment and Paper Cartridges, Tann'd Hides, Sword Belts, Lanthorns, Junk, Match, Sheepskins, Horſe and Mens Harneſs, Blocks, Bedding, Intrenching Tools, Handſcrews, Swords, Bayonets, Rope, Woolpacks, Gun Barrels, and other old and unſerviceable Stores, which may be viewed at the Tower of London; where printed Liſts of the Lots will be delivered to ſuch Perſons as apply for the ſame.

By Command of the Board,

Charles Buſh.
